

OUR HISTORY

The polished mahogany and stately atmosphere of the historic Round Robin Bar makes it the perfect place for an afternoon or evening cocktail. It was at this great classic bar that Kentucky senator, Henry Clay, introduced Washington to the Mint Julep, which would become the Round Robin's signature cocktail.

In 1862 Walt Whitman immortalized the Willard's bar in his poetic appeal to Union Troops:

"There you are, shoulder straps, but where are your companies? Where are our men? Speak, blow, put on airs in Willard's sumptuous bar, or anywhere! No explanation will save you. Bull Run is your work."

In 1904, as the hatchet-toting prohibitionist Carrie Nation raged against drink, a sign in the Round Robin Bar went up: "All Nations Welcome Except Carrie."

Upon hearing from a waiter that the Willard was closing, the Board of Governors of the National Press Club raced across the street to its favorite watering hole, the Round Robin Bar, and drank until the hotel doors closed.

The Board of Governors of the National Press Club reopened the Round Robin Bar on August 20th, 1986 - the day the Willard InterContinental opened its doors to continue its long historic legacy.
